Dr. Paul B. Sharp, Bar-Ilan University

Email: psharp1289@gmail.com

About the Lab:

The Sharp Lab at Bar-Ilan University, led by Dr. Paul B. Sharp, is seeking a dedicated postdoctoral researcher. Our research focuses on learning, planning, decision-making, and anxiety, using cutting-edge approaches to uncover the basic mechanisms and disruptions within these areas. We operate within the exciting field of computational psychiatry, integrating computational neuroscience and clinical psychology to advance our understanding.

Why Join Us?

- Resources: Bar-Ilan University offers unparalleled resources, including the only MEG scanner in Israel and a recent $260 million donation to fund AI research.
- Interdisciplinary Approach: Benefit from a fusion of computational and clinical research.
- Supportive Environment: Dr. Paul B. Sharp, an American from Philadelphia, ensures a seamless transition for researchers from English-speaking countries. We welcome applicants from clinical psychology, cognitive psychology, and related fields, even if your computational experience is limited.

Ideal Candidates:

We are looking for individuals with a PhD in psychology or neuroscience who are passionate about advancing research in learning, planning, decision-making, or anxiety.

Application Process:

If you are interested, please reach out to Dr. Paul B. Sharp via email at paul.sharp@yale.edu. Feel free to share this opportunity with anyone who might be interested.
